WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAISE PRELUDE TO WORSHIP

The wilderness life is a life of God-centered pilgrimage. It is camping out, not coming home... it is a journey whose sacrifices only make sense in light of the outcome.

– Iain Duguid

CALL TO WORSHIP

from Psalm 86

Minister: You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

People: Among the gods there is none like you,
no deeds can compare with yours.

Minister: All the nations you have made will come and worship before you.
They will bring glory to your name.

People: For you are great and do marvelous deeds;
you alone are God.

Minister: Teach me your way, Lord,
that I may rely on your faithfulness;
give me an undivided heart,
that I may fear your name.

People: I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart;
I will glorify your name forever.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION

*WE WORSHIP GOD WITH A HYMN OF PRAISE

O God Beyond All Praising

1 O God be-yond all prais-ing, we wor-ship you to - day
2 The flow'r of earth-ly splen-dor in time must sure-ly die, 3 Then hear, O gra-cious Sav-ior, ac-cept the love we bring,

and sing the love a-maz-ing that songs can-not re-pay;
its frag-ile bloom sur-ren-der to you, the Lord most high;
that we who know your fa-vor may serve you as our King;

for we can on-ly won-der at ev-'ry gift you send,
but hid-den from all na-ture the e-ter-nal seed is sown-and wheth-er our to-mor-rows be filled with good or ill, at bless-ings with-out num-ber and mer-cies with-out end:

though small in mor-tal stat-ure, to heav-en's gar-den grown:
we'll tri-umph through our sor-rows and rise to bless you still:

we lift our hearts be-fore you and wait up-on your word, for Christ, your gift from heav-en, from death has set us free,
to mar-vel at your beau-ty and glo-ry in your ways, we hon-or and a-dore you, our great and might-y Lord.

and we through him are giv-en the fi-nal vic-to-ry.
and make a joy-ful du-ty our sac-ri-fice of praise.

WE WORSHIP GOD BY AFFIRMING OUR FAITH

THE APOSTLES' CREED¹

Minister: Church, what do you believe?

People: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.

He descended into hell².

The third day He arose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic church³,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Amen.

¹Although not written by the apostles, the Apostles' Creed is a concise summary of their teachings. It originated in the 2nd century and developed into its present form by the 6th century.

²By referring to Jesus' descent into hell, the Christian affirms two truths. Firstly, Jesus received the full sentence of hell on behalf of his people while on the cross. Secondly, Jesus experienced death by remaining in the tomb after the crucifixion.

³The term catholic refers to the church universal, knowing no racial, economic, geographical, or language barriers.

Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and directed him, “You must not take a wife from the Canaanite women. Arise, go to Paddan-aram to the house of Bethuel your mother's father, and take as your wife from there one of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother. God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples. May he give the blessing of Abraham to you and to your offspring with you, that you may take possession of the land of your sojournings that God gave to Abraham!” Thus Isaac sent Jacob away. And he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he directed him, “You must not take a wife from the Canaanite women,” and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and gone to Paddan-aram. So when Esau saw that the Canaanite women did not please Isaac his father, Esau went to Ishmael and took as his wife, besides the wives he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth.

Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran. And he came to a certain place and stayed there that night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place to sleep. And he dreamed, and behold, there was a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. And behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it! And behold, the LORD stood above it and said, “I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring. Your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and in you and your offspring shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.” Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it.” And he was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.”

So early in the morning Jacob took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first. Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear, so that I come again to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God, and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God's house. And of all that you give me I will give a full tenth to you.”

WE WORSHIP GOD BY CONFESSING OUR SINS

PUBLIC CONFESSION

Minister: Let us confess our sins together.

All: Lord, though you should guide us, we inform ourselves;
though you should rule us, we control ourselves;
though you should fulfill us, we console ourselves.
We think your truth too high, your will too hard,
your power too remote, your love too free.
But they are not!
And without them, we are of all people most miserable.

Now heal our confused minds with your word,
heal our divided wills with your law,
heal our troubled consciences with your love,
heal our anxious hearts with your presence,
all for the sake of your Son,
who loved us and gave himself for us. Amen.

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON & COMFORT

In [Christ] we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace. - Ephesians 1:7

*WE WORSHIP GOD WITH A SONG OF PRAISE

Come Praise and Glorify

Come praise and glorify our God, the Father of our Lord.
In Christ, He has in heav'nly realms, His blessing on us poured.
For pure and blameless in His sight, He destined us to be,
And now, we've been adopted through His Son eternally.

To the praise of Your glory, to the praise of Your mercy and grace.
To the praise of Your glory, You are the God who saves.

Come praise and glorify our God, who gives His grace in Christ.
In Him, our sins are washed away, redeemed through sacrifice.
In Him, God has made known to us the myst'ry of His will,
That Christ should be the head of all, His purpose to fulfill.

To the praise of Your glory, to the praise of Your mercy and grace.
To the praise of Your glory, You are the God who saves.

Come praise and glorify our God, for we've believed the Word.
And through our faith, we have a seal, the Spirit of the Lord.
The Spirit guarantees our hope until redemption's done,
Until we join in endless praise to God, the Three in One.

To the praise of Your glory, to the praise of Your mercy and grace.
To the praise of Your glory, You are the God who saves.
To the praise of Your glory, to the praise of Your mercy and grace.
To the praise of Your glory, You are the God who saves.
You are the God who saves. You are the God who saves.

WE WORSHIP GOD BY RETURNING HIS TITHE AND GIVING OUR OFFERINGS

Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. - 2 Corinthians 9:6-7

Highlighted Ministry: Jon Eide - MTW Ukraine Country Director

CRISIS IN UKRAINE

As Ukraine faces the devastating reality of a Russian invasion ...

... MTW missionaries and members of 15 partner churches of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Ukraine are on their knees seeking the Lord's mercy, protection, and wisdom. Our churches in the west are preparing to care for the displaced who have fled their homes in the east. We are working with the churches of Ukraine to provide aid and resources to the believers and the surrounding community. Please give to provide food, shelter, clothing, and other essentials to those in need. And please join us in prayer.

From Jon Eide: Yesterday I interviewed Fedya and Luba, a couple who run a home for those fleeing the bombing—their “operation” is out of a two-bedroom apartment in a city near the EU border. They said that they’ve had 50 people through their apartment on their way to safety in the last two weeks (one night they had 12 people, a dog and a cat). Stories like theirs can make this big crisis a series of small realities of God’s provision and redemption. All of these stories are unbelievable but we must try to believe, and engage as best we can. The outpouring of donations and housing from both the American and the European church has been beautiful to see—please continue to learn, listen, and pray. Ukraine needs us right now.

Why Membership?

The Christian life is not a life meant to be lived in isolation. Jesus Christ died not only to save sinners but to gather those sinners together into a people for Himself (Eph. 2:19-22).

We need help, encouragement, and accountability as we follow the Lord Jesus Christ. This need is the reason that the Bible speaks over and over again about the Church and the need to have communion with one another. It is also the reason that Jesus Christ gave pastors, teachers, and shepherds to His Church (Eph. 4:11; 1 Pet. 5:1-2).

Being a part of the Church means commitment. This has both a personal component—your desire to be a part of the larger body of Christ, and also a public component—being baptized as a member of the covenant community and making a profession of faith. Practically, that means membership in a local body of believers, where a believer's gifts can be exercised, where prayer requests can be brought, and where encouragement can be found.

At Lakeside, we encourage those who worship with us to consider committing to membership. Membership in a church does have its “privileges,” but more importantly, it provides opportunities for service and ministry.

How do I become a member?

First and foremost, becoming a member of Lakeside requires you to know the Lord Jesus Christ by faith. The Church, after all, is Jesus' Church. If you are not sure what it means to believe in Jesus, then we encourage you to read our “We Believe” section or to talk to one of our pastors or elders.

Second, if you do believe in Jesus, we encourage you to attend one of our Discover Lakeside Classes. This class is a requirement for membership, as it is a great place to learn more about who we are at Lakeside, what we believe, and the direction we are headed.

Third, you become a member by meeting with our elders. This is an opportunity for our elders to come alongside you and hear your testimony of faith, and to answer any questions you may have about Lakeside and our ministry.

We Believe...

The Bible is the inspired Word of God, inerrant, infallible, and is our only rule for faith and life.

There is only one true and living God existing in three persons simultaneously; God the Father, God the Son (who is Jesus Christ), and God the Holy Spirit. These three are the one God, the same in substance and equal in their eternal power and glory.

Mankind's universal need is to be saved from sin. Every person is a sinner by nature and sinful from the moment of conception. Sin has rendered man spiritually dead, unable to do anything in and of himself to change his own condition and nature. It is this sinfulness that separates man from God and makes man liable to the just condemnation of God.

Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the virgin, Mary, being made like unto us in every way except without sin. This righteous life He offered up to God by dying on the cross and suffering in His body the judgment of God for sin in the place of guilty sinners. This same Jesus did then come back to life from the dead, additionally proving Himself to be the Son of God and His death to be a full satisfaction for sinners to be forgiven. He is alive today, having ascended into Heaven, and has been given all authority and power in Heaven and on earth.

Salvation from the guilt and power of sin is by grace alone through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone. This faith that saves is itself a gift from God.

The local church is the community of saved sinners, joined together by a common faith in Christ, growing in love for and obedience to Him, demonstrating love for each other as brothers and sisters in Christ, and proclaiming to the world the good news of God's love and forgiveness offered in Jesus Christ.

Baptism is the special sign given by God to the church, distinguishing the family of believers from the world, and is to be administered to all those who come to faith in Christ and also to their children as members of the household of faith.

Jesus Christ's return to the Earth will be literal, visible, and physical at the end of the age as promised. There shall be a resurrection of all mankind and all shall appear before the judgment throne of Christ. All those who have been chosen in Christ by the mercy of God shall enter into the glory of Heaven and enjoy the presence of God forever. All those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power. The Bible knows of no other destiny for all mankind than these two.
