In consideration of other worshippers, please program all communication devices to silent mode.
Babies and toddlers are welcome in the sanctuary during our worship time.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAISE PRELUDE TO WORSHIP

The grave is your long home, but not your last home. Though death strip you of your beauty, yet at the resurrection you shall have it restored again. - Thomas Watson

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection has delivered us from the power of the enemy, grant us to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him, in the joy of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. - Gregory the Great

The Congregation Stands*

Minister: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth.

People: To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Minister: When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand on me, saying,

All: “Fear not, I am the first and the last, and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades.”

WESTMINSTER SHORTER CATECHISM ¹

Q 1

Minister: What is the chief end of man?

People: Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy Him forever.

WE WORSHIP GOD THROUGH THE READING OF HIS WORD

Matthew 28

Now after the Sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you." So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

While they were going, behold, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests all that had taken place. And when they had assembled with the elders and taken counsel, they gave a sufficient sum of money to the soldiers and said, "Tell people, 'His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.' And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble." So they took the money and did as they were directed. And this story has been spread among the Jews to this day.

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

WE WORSHIP GOD BY CONFESSING OUR SINS

PUBLIC CONFSSION

Minister: Let us confess our sins together.

All: Eternal God,
in whom we live and move and have our being,
whose face is hidden from us by our sins,
and whose mercy we forget in the
blindness of our hearts:
cleanse us from all our offenses,
and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires,
that with reverent and humble hearts
we may draw near to you,
confessing our faults, confiding in your grace,
and finding in you our refuge and strength;
through Jesus Christ your Son. Amen.

SILENT CONFSSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON & COMFORT

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

“Why Do You Seek the Living Among the Dead?”

Lakeside Easter Choir

Directed by Dr. Hunt Whitehead

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, ²“This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you. ³Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household. ⁴And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. ⁵Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats, ⁶and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight.

⁷“Then they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. ⁸They shall eat the flesh that night, roasted on the fire; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it. ⁹Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted, its head with its legs and its inner parts. ¹⁰And you shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. ¹¹In this manner you shall eat it: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD's Passover. ¹²For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. ¹³The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴“This day shall be for you a memorial day, and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations, as a statute forever, you shall keep it as a feast. ¹⁵Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven out of your houses, for if anyone eats what is leavened, from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶On the first day you shall hold a holy assembly, and on the seventh day a holy assembly. No work shall be done on those days. But what everyone needs to eat, that alone may be prepared by you. ¹⁷And you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day, throughout your generations, as a statute forever. ¹⁸In the first month, from the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. ¹⁹For seven days no leaven is to be found in your houses. If anyone eats what is leavened, that person will be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a sojourner or a native of the land. ²⁰You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwelling places you shall eat unleavened bread.”

²¹Then Moses called all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go and select lambs for yourselves according to your clans, and kill the Passover lamb. ²²Take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. None of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning. ²³ For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians, and when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you. ²⁴ You shall observe this rite as a statute for you and for your sons forever. ²⁵ And when you come to the land that the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this service. ²⁶ And when your children say to you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’ ²⁷ you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, for he passed over the houses of the people of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians but spared our houses.’” And the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

²⁸ Then the people of Israel went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

²⁹ At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of the livestock. ³⁰ And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where someone was not dead. ³¹ Then he summoned Moses and Aaron by night and said, “Up, go out from among my people, both you and the people of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said. ³² Take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone, and bless me also!”

Living Hope

How great the chasm that lay between us. How high the mountain I could not climb.
In desperation, I turned to heaven and spoke Your name into the night.
Then through the darkness, Your loving-kindness tore through the shadows of my soul.
The work is finished, the end is written. Jesus Christ, my living hope.

Who could imagine so great a mercy? What heart could fathom such boundless grace?
The God of ages stepped down from glory to wear my sin and bear my shame.
The cross has spoken; I am forgiven. The King of kings calls me His own.
Beautiful Savior, I'm Yours forever. Jesus Christ, my living hope.

Hallelujah, praise the One who set me free!
Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me! You have broken every chain, there's salvation in Your name. Jesus Christ, my living hope.

Hallelujah, praise the One who set me free!
Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me! You have broken every chain, there's salvation in Your name. Jesus Christ, my living hope.

Then came the morning that sealed the promise, Your buried body began to breathe.
Out of the silence, the Roaring Lion declared the grave has no claim on me.
Then came the morning that sealed the promise, Your buried body began to breathe.
Out of the silence, the Roaring Lion declared the grave has no claim on me.
Jesus, Yours is the victory!

Hallelujah, praise the One who set me free!
Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me! You have broken every chain, there's salvation in Your name. Jesus Christ, my living hope.
Jesus Christ, my living hope. Oh God, You are my living hope.

CRISIS IN UKRAINE

As Ukraine faces the devastating reality of a Russian invasion ...

... MTW missionaries and members of 15 partner churches of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Ukraine are on their knees seeking the Lord's mercy, protection, and wisdom. Our churches in the west are preparing to care for the displaced who have fled their homes in the east. We are working with the churches of Ukraine to provide aid and resources to the believers and the surrounding community. Please give to provide food, shelter, clothing, and other essentials to those in need. And please join us in prayer.

From Jon Eide: Yesterday I interviewed Fedya and Luba, a couple who run a home for those fleeing the bombing—their “operation” is out of a two-bedroom apartment in a city near the EU border. They said that they’ve had 50 people through their apartment on their way to safety in the last two weeks (one night they had 12 people, a dog and a cat). Stories like theirs can make this big crisis a series of small realities of God’s provision and redemption. All of these stories are unbelievable but we must try to believe, and engage as best we can. The outpouring of donations and housing from both the American and the European church has been beautiful to see—please continue to learn, listen, and pray. Ukraine needs us right now.

Why Membership?

The Christian life is not a life meant to be lived in isolation. Jesus Christ died not only to save sinners but to gather those sinners together into a people for Himself (Eph. 2:19-22).

We need help, encouragement, and accountability as we follow the Lord Jesus Christ. This need is the reason that the Bible speaks over and over again about the Church and the need to have communion with one another. It is also the reason that Jesus Christ gave pastors, teachers, and shepherds to His Church (Eph. 4:11; 1 Pet. 5:1-2).

Being a part of the Church means commitment. This has both a personal component—your desire to be a part of the larger body of Christ, and also a public component—being baptized as a member of the covenant community and making a profession of faith. Practically, that means membership in a local body of believers, where a believer's gifts can be exercised, where prayer requests can be brought, and where encouragement can be found.

At Lakeside, we encourage those who worship with us to consider committing to membership. Membership in a church does have its “privileges,” but more importantly, it provides opportunities for service and ministry.

How do I become a member?

First and foremost, becoming a member of Lakeside requires you to know the Lord Jesus Christ by faith. The Church, after all, is Jesus' Church. If you are not sure what it means to believe in Jesus, then we encourage you to read our “We Believe” section or to talk to one of our pastors or elders.

Second, if you do believe in Jesus, we encourage you to attend one of our Discover Lakeside Classes. This class is a requirement for membership, as it is a great place to learn more about who we are at Lakeside, what we believe, and the direction we are headed.

Third, you become a member by meeting with our elders. This is an opportunity for our elders to come alongside you and hear your testimony of faith, and to answer any questions you may have about Lakeside and our ministry.

We Believe...

The Bible is the inspired Word of God, inerrant, infallible, and is our only rule for faith and life.

There is only one true and living God existing in three persons simultaneously; God the Father, God the Son (who is Jesus Christ), and God the Holy Spirit. These three are the one God, the same in substance and equal in their eternal power and glory.

Mankind's universal need is to be saved from sin. Every person is a sinner by nature and sinful from the moment of conception. Sin has rendered man spiritually dead, unable to do anything in and of himself to change his own condition and nature. It is this sinfulness that separates man from God and makes man liable to the just condemnation of God.

Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the virgin, Mary, being made like unto us in every way except without sin. This righteous life He offered up to God by dying on the cross and suffering in His body the judgment of God for sin in the place of guilty sinners. This same Jesus did then come back to life from the dead, additionally proving Himself to be the Son of God and His death to be a full satisfaction for sinners to be forgiven. He is alive today, having ascended into Heaven, and has been given all authority and power in Heaven and on earth.

Salvation from the guilt and power of sin is by grace alone through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone. This faith that saves is itself a gift from God.

The local church is the community of saved sinners, joined together by a common faith in Christ, growing in love for and obedience to Him, demonstrating love for each other as brothers and sisters in Christ, and proclaiming to the world the good news of God's love and forgiveness offered in Jesus Christ.

Baptism is the special sign given by God to the church, distinguishing the family of believers from the world, and is to be administered to all those who come to faith in Christ and also to their children as members of the household of faith.

Jesus Christ's return to the Earth will be literal, visible, and physical at the end of the age as promised. There shall be a resurrection of all mankind and all shall appear before the judgment throne of Christ. All those who have been chosen in Christ by the mercy of God shall enter into the glory of Heaven and enjoy the presence of God forever. All those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power. The Bible knows of no other destiny for all mankind than these two.

Nurseries

Lakeside offers fully staffed nurseries for children aged 3 months up to 4 years. You may check your child in with the volunteer at each nursery door.

All of our nursery staff and adult volunteers have had a background check prior to serving with our children.

We have a Sensory Room located at the back of the sanctuary. If you find yourself in need of the Sensory Room, please speak to a deacon or one of our Children's Coordinators and they will assist you.

Christian Education

Each Sunday, at 9:15am, we have classes for all ages from nursery to adults. This includes junior high school, high school and adult classes.

Our adults study topics ranging from books of the bible to apologetics to engaging the culture.
