WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAISE PRELUDE TO WORSHIP

The Lord is unchangeable in holiness and glory. He is a sun that shines always with equal brightness. God, and all that is in God, is unchangeable; for this is an attribute which, like a silken thread through a chain of pearl, runs through all the rest...Our safety lies in God's immutability; we cannot perish utterly because He cannot change. - Thomas Manton

God is of eternal duration. The eternity of God is the foundation of the stability of the covenant, the great comfort of a Christian. - Stephen Charnock

WE WORSHIP GOD BY AFFIRMING OUR FAITH

Westminster Shorter Catechism ¹

Q 29, 30

Elder: How are we made partakers of the redemption purchased by Christ?

People: We are made partakers of the redemption purchased by Christ, by the effectual application of it to us by his Holy Spirit.

Elder: How does the Spirit apply to us the redemption purchased by Christ?

People: The Spirit applies to us the redemption purchased by Christ, by working faith in us, and thereby uniting us to Christ in our effectual calling.

WE WORSHIP GOD THROUGH THE READING OF HIS WORD

Genesis 48

After this, Joseph was told, “Behold, your father is ill.” So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. And it was told to Jacob, “Your son Joseph has come to you.” Then Israel summoned his strength and sat up in bed. And Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, and said to me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples and will give this land to your offspring after you for an everlasting possession.’ And now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are. And the children that you fathered after them shall be yours. They shall be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance. As for me, when I came from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath, and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).”

When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, “Who are these?” Joseph said to his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” And he said, “Bring them to me, please, that I may bless them.” Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. So Joseph brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them. And Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face; and behold, God has let me see your offspring also.” Then Joseph removed them from his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near him. And Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands (for Manasseh was the firstborn). And he blessed Joseph and said,

“The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,
the God who has been my shepherd all my life long to this day,
the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys;
and in them let my name be carried on, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac;
and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.”

When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him, and he took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. And Joseph said to his father, “Not this way, my father; since this one is the firstborn, put your right hand on his head.” But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great. Nevertheless, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his offspring shall become a multitude of nations.” So he blessed them that day, saying,

“By you Israel will pronounce blessings, saying,
‘God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh.’”

Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh. Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you again to the land of your fathers. Moreover, I have given to you rather than to your brothers one mountain slope that I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.”

WE WORSHIP GOD BY CONFESSING OUR SINS

PUBLIC CONFSSION

Elder: Let us confess our sins together.

All: O great and everlasting God, who dwells in unapproachable light, who searches and knows the thoughts and intentions of the heart; we confess that we have not loved you with all our heart, nor with all our soul, nor with all our mind, nor with all our strength; nor our neighbors as ourselves. We have loved what we ought not to have loved; we have coveted what is not ours; we have not been content with Your provisions for us. We have complained in our hearts about our family, about our friends, about our health, about our occupations, about Your church, and about our trials. We have sought our security in those things that perish, rather than in you, the Everlasting God. Chasten, cleanse, and forgive us, through Jesus Christ, who is able for all time to save us who approach you through him, since he always lives to make intercession for us. Amen.

SILENT CONFSSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON & COMFORT

As far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.
-Psalm 103:12

WE WORSHIP GOD WITH A SONG OF PRAISE

Speak, O Lord

1. Speak, O Lord, as we come to You to receive the food of Your holy word.

Take Your truth, plant it deep in us; shape and fashion us in Your likeness.

That the light of Christ might be seen today in our acts of love and our deeds of faith.

Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us all Your purposes for Your glory.

2. Teach us, Lord, full obedience, holy reverence, true humility.

Test our thoughts and our attitudes in the radiance of Your purity.

Cause our faith to rise; cause our eyes to see Your majestic love and authority.

Words of power that can never fail; let their truth prevail over unbelief.

3. Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds,

Help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us.

Truths unchanged from the dawn of time,

That will echo down through eternity.

And by grace we'll stand on Your promises;

And by faith we'll walk as You walk with us.

Speak, O Lord, till Your church is built and the earth is filled with Your glory.

WE WORSHIP GOD BY RETURNING HIS TITHE AND GIVING OUR OFFERINGS

Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

- 2 Corinthians 9:6-7

⁷ Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. ⁹ Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. ¹⁰ We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. ¹¹ For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. ¹² So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. ¹³ Therefore let us go to him outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. ¹⁴ For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.

Why Membership?

The Christian life is not a life meant to be lived in isolation. Jesus Christ died not only to save sinners but to gather those sinners together into a people for Himself (Eph. 2:19-22).

We need help, encouragement, and accountability as we follow the Lord Jesus Christ. This need is the reason that the Bible speaks over and over again about the Church and the need to have communion with one another. It is also the reason that Jesus Christ gave pastors, teachers, and shepherds to His Church (Eph. 4:11; 1 Pet. 5:1-2).

Being a part of the Church means commitment. This has both a personal component—your desire to be a part of the larger body of Christ, and also a public component—being baptized as a member of the covenant community and making a profession of faith. Practically, that means membership in a local body of believers, where a believer's gifts can be exercised, where prayer requests can be brought, and where encouragement can be found.

At Lakeside, we encourage those who worship with us to consider committing to membership. Membership in a church does have its “privileges,” but more importantly, it provides opportunities for service and ministry.

How do I become a member?

First and foremost, becoming a member of Lakeside requires you to know the Lord Jesus Christ by faith. The Church, after all, is Jesus' Church. If you are not sure what it means to believe in Jesus, then we encourage you to read our “We Believe” section or to talk to one of our pastors or elders.

Second, if you do believe in Jesus, we encourage you to attend one of our Discover Lakeside Classes. This class is a requirement for membership, as it is a great place to learn more about who we are at Lakeside, what we believe, and the direction we are headed.

Third, you become a member by meeting with our elders. This is an opportunity for our elders to come alongside you and hear your testimony of faith, and to answer any questions you may have about Lakeside and our ministry.

We Believe...

The Bible is the inspired Word of God, inerrant, infallible, and is our only rule for faith and life.

There is only one true and living God existing in three persons simultaneously; God the Father, God the Son (who is Jesus Christ), and God the Holy Spirit. These three are the one God, the same in substance and equal in their eternal power and glory.

Mankind's universal need is to be saved from sin. Every person is a sinner by nature and sinful from the moment of conception. Sin has rendered man spiritually dead, unable to do anything in and of himself to change his own condition and nature. It is this sinfulness that separates man from God and makes man liable to the just condemnation of God.

Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the virgin, Mary, being made like unto us in every way except without sin. This righteous life He offered up to God by dying on the cross and suffering in His body the judgment of God for sin in the place of guilty sinners. This same Jesus did then come back to life from the dead, additionally proving Himself to be the Son of God and His death to be a full satisfaction for sinners to be forgiven. He is alive today, having ascended into Heaven, and has been given all authority and power in Heaven and on earth.

Salvation from the guilt and power of sin is by grace alone through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone. This faith that saves is itself a gift from God.

The local church is the community of saved sinners, joined together by a common faith in Christ, growing in love for and obedience to Him, demonstrating love for each other as brothers and sisters in Christ, and proclaiming to the world the good news of God's love and forgiveness offered in Jesus Christ.

Baptism is the special sign given by God to the church, distinguishing the family of believers from the world, and is to be administered to all those who come to faith in Christ and also to their children as members of the household of faith.

Jesus Christ's return to the Earth will be literal, visible, and physical at the end of the age as promised. There shall be a resurrection of all mankind and all shall appear before the judgment throne of Christ. All those who have been chosen in Christ by the mercy of God shall enter into the glory of Heaven and enjoy the presence of God forever. All those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power. The Bible knows of no other destiny for all mankind than these two.
